Lawrence County Genealogical Society at the OGS Conference

The photo at the left is the Lawrence County display table at the 2008 Ohio Genealogical Society Annual Conference. Your editor was there, mostly as the OGS Trustee for the Athens District. I did manage to check on the table occasionally. We want to extend a big thank you to Juanita Kendall, a Lawrence County member who is a Cincinnati resident. A registered attendee at the conference, she donated her free time to sit with our display and answer questions.

Our groups new vice-president, Linda McComas, was also at the conference, but as a first time attendee, she was taking in the classes and learning as much as possible.

The 2009 OGS Conference will be the first weekend of April, at the Sawmill Creek Resort, near Huron, OH. If you live in the northern part of Ohio, that will be a great opportunity to learn and socialize with other genealogists. Conference registration material will be available late this year.

The final attendance figures for this year show about 650 total, including all speakers and vendors.

The Athens District Chapters of OGS are sponsoring a regional Seminar on Saturday Oct. 25, 2008, in the auditorium of Bob Evans Farms Hall, the University of Rio Grande, Rio Grande, OH. A seminar was held in this location in 2006, and it is a great facility with plenty of parking.

Planned sessions include:

Morning

1. Safe and effective use of the internet
2. Choosing and using a computer genealogy program
 - Introductions to several of the most popular programs
 - Small groups for details on using some of the programs (computers available for demonstrations)

Afternoon

1. Accessing Ohio State and Local Records/ with small groups for details on the various counties. It is planned to have a handout available for each county listing the locations of the records, the degree of co-operation that can be expected at those locations, and the hotel/motels and restaurants in the county.

Price has not been finalized, but will be no more than $20 per person for the day. This will include cookies, coffee or water, and all handouts.

Details will follow in the next issue. Advance registrations may be sent to:

Athens District Seminar, PO Box 1035, Proctorville, OH 45669-1035

Be sure to include address, phone, and email

LAWRENCE COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY IN IRONTON'S 140TH ANNUAL MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

For the 2008 parade we honored Lawrence Counties WWI casualties. We thank Naomi Deer for finding the list in an old Ironton Tribune.

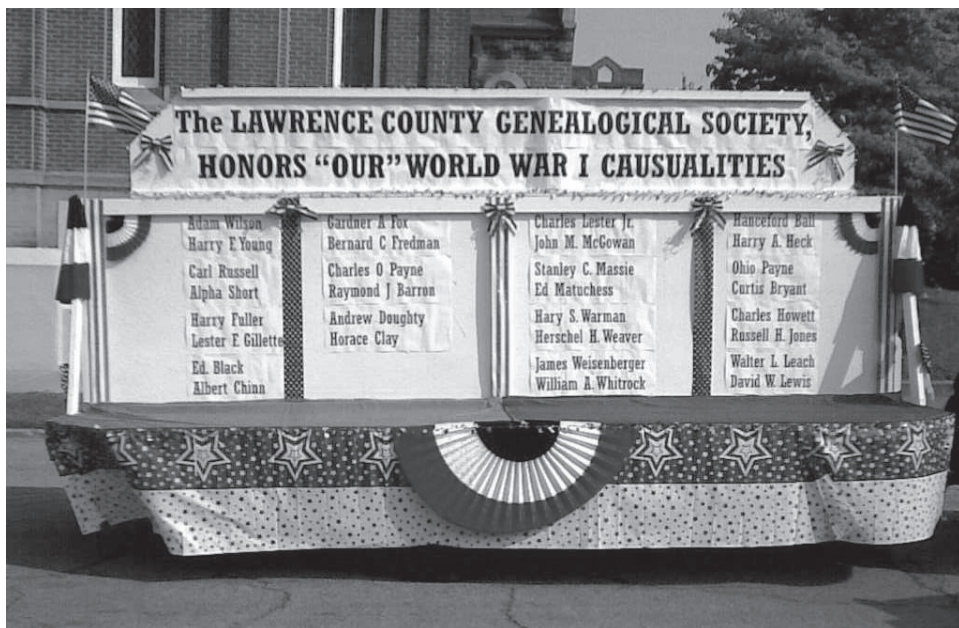

One unfortunate fact is that many of these men died in a flu epidemic that swept the country, without ever actually getting into combat.

There are 62 men on this list, with Homer Dawson being the first Lawrence County man to die of combat injuries during this war. They are not listed in any specific order.

Homer Mays pulled our entry with his 1952 John Deere model G tractor. The float was assembled on Don Clark's trailer reusing the design and lumber used in 2007. We spent about $50 for expendable décor items. Many items have been used several times.

These photos were taken by Don Clark using his Nokia cell phone.

We thank the local office of the American Electric Power Co. for once again allowing us to use their storage yard to store and decorate the float.

Annual Picnic and Hamner Room Lock-In

On Friday evening August 1, the Lawrence County Genealogical Society will hold its annual picnic, in the parking area on the second floor level of Briggs Library, 321 S 4th St, Ironton. Following the picnic we'll have a Hamner Room Lock-in, and can stay til the last researcher gives up. Last year that was at 4 AM.

Last year we supplied all the food and beverages for a $5 donation. That worked very well, but with inflation we're asking for $6 this year. Please phone or email by July 25. You can also notify Judy Carpenter at the library. We need this advance notice to plan for and purchase the needed supplies. We hope to see you there.
